Lauderhill’s Reopen Schedule

Lauderhill staff is working towards a safe and methodical re-opening of the City’s own passive parks - beginning May 11, 2020. Park-goers must still adhere to the CDC guidelines for masks and social distancing. In addition, no tennis or basketball courts, playgrounds, pavilions, or exercise equipment will be open.

The City Parks to open on May 11th for recreation activities like walking and jogging, include Boulevard Woods, 17th Street Park, Ilene Lieberman, Jackie Gleason, Bradley Park, Meditation Park, 35th Avenue Greenway, Renaissance Park, Ruth Rothkopf, S. Gateway Park, Waterford Park, and the lakeside area of Wolk Park.

The Lauderhill Golf Course will also reopen on May 11, but will follow the “Golf Course Limited Reopening Requirements” as provided by #20-08 attachment #4. See the addresses for City Parks at lauderhill-fl.gov/parks.

All other business and facility closures, to include public and association pools as indicated by prior City Executive Orders, will remain in effect until further notice.

Census

Remember to be counted in the 2020 Census. For every Lauderhill resident who does not participate in the Census, the City of Lauderhill will not receive $1600 per person, per year, for 10 years! Get counted! Participate online or over the phone. Census answers are not shared with any other agency or organization for use. Visit 2020census.gov now!
